Going concern

The accounting principles applied to the valuation of assets and liabilities and the determination of results in these financial statements are based on the assumption of continuity of the Cooperative.

Directors' report

The Cooperative has taken advantage of Article 395a section 6, Title 9, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code and has not presented a directors' report.

Accruals

The Cooperative applies accrual accounting on income and expenses, which can involve estimates.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires the management to form opinions and to make estimates and assumptions that influence the application of principles and the reported values of assets and liabilities and of income and expenditure. The actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and the underlying assumptions are constantly assessed. Revisions of estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and in future periods for which the revision has consequences.

Comparison with previous year

The principles of valuation and determination of the result remained unchanged in comparison to previous year.

Also entities which can control the Cooperative are considered to be a related party. In addition, statutory directors, other key management of the Cooperative or the ultimate parent company and close relatives are regarded as related parties.

Transactions with related parties are disclosed in the notes insofar as they are not transacted under normal market conditions. The nature, extent and other information is disclosed if this is necessary in order to provide the required insight.

2. General accounting principles

Accounting policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Title 9, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code and the Dutch Accounting Standards applicable for micro legal entities, as published by the Dutch Accounting Standards Board (Raad voor de Jaarverslaggeving).

Based on Title 9, Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code, the Cooperative can be qualified as a so-called micro-sized company, but voluntarily discloses more information than required by law.

Valuation of assets and liabilities and determination of the result take place under the historical cost convention, unless presented otherwise.

Profit is only included when realized on balance sheet date. Liabilities and any losses originating before the end of the financial year are taken into account, if they have become known before preparation of the financial statements.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments include both primary financial instruments, such as receivables, liabilities and financial derivatives. Reference is made to the recognition per balance sheet item for the principles of primary financial instruments.

Foreign currency

The functional currency of the Cooperative is the prevailing currency in the economic environment, in which the Cooperative carries out most of its activities.

The financial statements are denominated in USD, this is both the functional currency and presentation currency of the Cooperative.

3. Principles of valuation of assets and liabilities

FIXED ASSETS

Financial fixed assets

Participations

Participations over which no significant influence can be exercised are valued at historical cost. The dividend income in the profit and loss account represents the dividend declared in the reporting year, whereby dividend not distributed in cash is valued at fair value.

In the light of the aforementioned application of Article 408 section 1, Title 9 Book 2 of the Dutch Civil code and in management's opinion disclosure of net asset value would not enhance the insight into the Cooperative's financial position and results, the participations are valued at historical cost.

CURRENT ASSETS

Receivables

Upon initial recognition the receivables are valued at fair value and then valued at amortized cost. The fair value and amortized cost equal the face value. Provisions deemed necessary for possible bad debt losses are deducted. These provisions are determined by individual assessment of the receivables.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents represent cash in hand, cash at bank accounts and deposits with terms of less than twelve months. Overdrafts at banks are recognized as part of debts to lending institutions under current liabilities. Cash at banks and in hand is carried at nominal value.

LIABILITIES

Current liabilities

On initial recognition, current liabilities are recognized at fair value. After initial recognition, current liabilities are recognized at the amortized cost price, being the amount received, taking into account premiums or discounts, less transaction costs. This usually is the nominal value.

4. Principles for the determination of the result

General

The results on transactions are recognised in the year in which they are realised.

Costs

Costs are determined on a historical basis and allocated to the financial year to which they relate.

Taxation on result

Taxation on result is calculated based on the result before tax in the profit and loss account, taking account of the losses available for set-off from previous financial years (to the extent that they have not already been included in the deferred tax assets) and exempt profit components and after the addition of non-deductible costs. Also changes are taken into account, which occur in the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities in respect of changes in the applicable tax rate.
